How do we use Cookies?

Elie Cardero may use cookies, to help customise our website and to improve your experience.

We may use cookies to:

- Analyse our web traffic using Google Analytics and other analytics packages to improve our website layout, content and functions.
- Identify whether you are signed in to our website.
- Test content on our website.
- Store information about your preferences, to help you get the most relevant information and content.
- To recognise when you return to our website, to allow us to show you relevant content.
- Cookies do not give us access to your computer, or any information about you, other than what you choose to share with us.

Control of Cookies

Most browsers are set to accept cookies by default. However, you can remove or reject cookies in your browser's settings. Please be aware that such action could affect the availability and functionality of the Site. For more information on how to control cookies, check your browser or device's settings for how you can control or reject cookies.

We will however not supply your data or information to any other third party.
